

Special Criminal Legal Protection

Your personal lifeline as a manager

As part of their civil liability for professional errors, managers are usually protected by D&O insurance. However, management errors often also involve criminal liability.

Because under German criminal law, not the companies are held accountable, but the employees themselves.

In criminal proceedings, managers must defend themselves legally at their own expense. And criminal proceedings are expensive!

Our special insurance for criminal defense protects you financially and legally.

Facts

- In the case of an insured event, the insurer covers all expenses in connection with the criminal proceedings - regardless of whether they are initiated against an insured company or an insured person.
- Insured persons are the company itself as well as its shareholders and executive bodies. In addition, all current, former and additional natural persons in the execution of their professional and other activities, for or on behalf of the policyholder or a co-insured company are insured.
